

21st Century Community Learning Centers Grant Proposal Hanover School District

Notice to submit grant application:

Hanover School District will be applying for 5 years of CCLC programming to focus on remediation of students with low achievement scores and programming options to increase life preparedness beyond high school.

This programming would take place on Monday afternoons, Tue – Fri after school, and on Saturdays. It will be conducted in two locations, as shown on the chart below.

This grant is being worked on by a team consisting of parents, staff, teachers, and volunteers and will be submitted on October 20, 2009 to CDE.

If you have any questions, or would like any further information, please contact Darryl Webb, superintendent of schools.
